Your Ultimate Guide to Upgrade in Princess Cruise: Packages, Bids & Insider Tips

If you want to enhance your voyage, the best way to secure an upgrade in Princess Cruise is through one of two main methods: the flexible Princess Plus and Premier all-inclusive packages or the new bid-based Princess Upgrade program. With Princess Plus, you upgrade your onboard experience for $65 per day, while Princess Premier offers a premium all-inclusive package for $100 per day. Alternatively, you can bid for a higher stateroom category through the new Princess Upgrade system. This guide covers every question you have about an upgrade in Princess Cruise, from pricing and policies to eligibility and troubleshooting. For personalized help with an upgrade in Princess Cruise, Call now +1 833 624-{0944}.

Key Takeaways:

- You can get an upgrade in Princess Cruise by adding the Princess Plus ($65/day) or Princess Premier ($100/day) fare packages.
- A new bid-based upgrade system, Princess Upgrade, allows guests to bid for higher stateroom categories on select ships.
- The upgrade in Princess Cruise packages offer 50-70% savings compared to purchasing benefits separately.
- Both packages must be purchased at least four days before departure to secure the lower pre-cruise rate.
- The new Princess Premier package includes a shore excursion credit up to $300 depending on voyage length.

How Do I Get an Upgrade in Princess Cruise?

To get an upgrade in Princess Cruise, you have two primary options: upgrade to a Princess Plus or Premier fare package, or bid for a higher stateroom category. The first option is an all-inclusive experience upgrade that adds drinks, Wi-Fi, dining, and gratuities. For example, Princess Plus costs $65 per person, per day, and includes a beverage package, Wi-Fi, casual dining, and crew appreciation. The second option is the new Princess Upgrade program where you can bid for any stateroom above what you booked. To explore which upgrade in Princess Cruise option suits you best, Call now +1 833 624-{0944}.

Can I Bid for an Upgrade in Princess Cruise?

Yes, you can bid for an upgrade in Princess Cruise through the new Princess Upgrade program, but it is only available to guests in the USA initially. Princess Cruises partnered with Plusgrade to develop this bid-based system. Once your sailing is within the final payment period and you've paid in full, you will receive an invitation to participate. You can then submit a bid for any stateroom category above the one you booked. You can change or cancel your bid anytime before it is accepted. Currently, the program is available on five ships: Caribbean Princess, Discovery Princess, Enchanted Princess, Regal Princess, and Ruby Princess. For more details on your eligibility for an upgrade in Princess Cruise through bidding, Call now +1 833 624-{0944}.

How Much Does an Upgrade in Princess Cruise Cost?

The cost of an upgrade in Princess Cruise ranges from $65 to $105 per person, per day for the all-inclusive packages, or varies based on your bid amount for stateroom upgrades. Princess Plus is priced at $65 per day, and Princess Premier at $100 per day for most ships. However, on the new Sphere-class ships like Sun Princess and Star Princess, the prices are $70 and $105 per day, respectively. If you choose the bid-based upgrade, the cost depends on how much you are willing to offer for a higher category room. For an exact quote on your upgrade in Princess Cruise, Call now +1 833 624-{0944}.

What Is Included in the Princess Plus Upgrade?

The Princess Plus upgrade includes a beverage package, Wi-Fi, casual dining, and crew appreciation for $65 per day. Specifically, the Plus package features the Plus Beverage Package (including unlimited specialty coffees and teas that do not count toward the 15-drink limit), Wi-Fi for one device, four casual dining meals per voyage, fees waived for OceanNow and room service delivery, and daily crew appreciation. Underused perks like premium desserts, juice bar access, fitness classes, and Medallion shipping have been removed. To understand if this upgrade in Princess Cruise fits your needs, Call now +1 833 624-{0944}.

What Is Included in the Princess Premier Upgrade?

The Princess Premier upgrade is the premium all-inclusive package at $100 per day, featuring unlimited dining, premium drinks, and a shore excursion credit. This top-tier upgrade in Princess Cruise includes the Premier Beverage Package, unlimited casual and specialty dining, Wi-Fi for four devices, waived fees for OceanNow and room service, unlimited digital professional photos, reserved theater seating, and daily crew appreciation. The new addition is a shore excursion credit: $100 for 6-9 days, $200 for 10-20 days, and up to $300 for voyages of 21+ days. For the full breakdown of the Premier upgrade in Princess Cruise, Call now +1 833 624-{0944}.

Does Princess Allow Me to Upgrade My Stateroom?

Yes, Princess allows you to upgrade your stateroom through the new Princess Upgrade bid-based system. Princess Cruises introduced this system to meet guest demand for better rooms. You can submit a bid for any stateroom category above your current booking. The system is initially rolling out on five ships: Caribbean Princess, Discovery Princess, Enchanted Princess, Regal Princess, and Ruby Princess, with plans to expand fleet-wide by the end of October. You can change or cancel your bid before acceptance. To find out if your specific cruise is eligible for a stateroom upgrade in Princess Cruise, Call now +1 833 624-{0944}.

What Happens If My Princess Upgrade Bid Is Accepted?

If your Princess upgrade bid is accepted, you will be charged the amount you bid, and your stateroom will be upgraded to the higher category. The charge is final and non-refundable once accepted, but you can cancel or modify your bid before it is accepted. The new room assignment will be at Princess Cruises' discretion. You will receive a confirmation with your new stateroom number. To prepare for a successful bid outcome for your upgrade in Princess Cruise, Call now +1 833 624-{0944}.

Can I Upgrade My Princess Cruise with Onboard Spending Money?

Yes, you can effectively upgrade your Princess Cruise by using onboard spending money from promotions. Some deals offer onboard spending money that can be used for onboard purchases, making the upgrade in Princess Cruise feel more valuable. For example, booking a Princess Plus or Premier fare can come with up to AUD$300 or more onboard spending money, depending on the promotion. This onboard credit can cover drinks, dining, or shore excursions, enhancing your cruise experience. To see if you qualify for onboard spending money with an upgrade in Princess Cruise, Call now +1 833 624-{0944}.

When Can I Bid for an Upgrade in Princess Cruise?

You can bid for an upgrade in Princess Cruise once your sailing is within the final payment period and full payment has been received. Princess Cruises will send an invitation to eligible guests to participate in the Princess Upgrade program. The program is currently available on select ships: Caribbean Princess, Discovery Princess, Enchanted Princess, Regal Princess, and Ruby Princess. For the all-inclusive package upgrades, you must purchase at least four days before departure to get the pre-cruise rate. To confirm the timing for your upgrade in Princess Cruise, Call now +1 833 624-{0944}.

Best Way to Maximize Value from an Upgrade in Princess Cruise

The best way to maximize value from an upgrade in Princess Cruise is to calculate the daily cost of the package against your planned onboard spending. Princess Plus at $65/day is a great deal if you plan to have 2-3 drinks daily, use Wi-Fi, and enjoy casual dining. If you want premium drinks, specialty dining, and photos, Princess Premier at $100/day offers up to 70% savings compared to buying items separately. For the bid-based upgrade, research the retail price difference to make a competitive offer. To get help calculating the best value upgrade in Princess Cruise for your travel style, Call now +1 833 624-{0944}.

Tips for a Successful Bid on an Upgrade in Princess Cruise

A successful bid for an upgrade in Princess Cruise involves understanding the bidding system and making a competitive offer. Since you can change or cancel your bid anytime before acceptance, you can start with a lower offer and adjust later. Consider the specific ship, as the program is currently only on Caribbean Princess, Discovery Princess, Enchanted Princess, Regal Princess, and Ruby Princess. Higher bids increase your chances. Also, consider whether you'd prefer to use the Princess Plus or Premier package instead, as these offer guaranteed upgrades with fixed pricing. For expert advice on your upgrade in Princess Cruise, Call now +1 833 624-{0944}.

Can I Upgrade My Princess Cruise Using a Guarantee Stateroom?

Yes, booking a guarantee stateroom is another way to potentially get an upgrade in Princess Cruise. When you book a guarantee cabin, you pay for a lower category, but Princess Cruises assigns your room closer to departure. They may assign a higher category room if available, effectively giving you an upgrade in Princess Cruise without bidding. This is a popular alternative to the Princess Upgrade program. However, you don't choose your cabin location, and the assignment is random. To discuss if a guarantee stateroom is right for your upgrade in Princess Cruise, Call now +1 833 624-{0944}.

What Are the Alternatives to Princess Plus and Premier for an Upgrade?

Alternatives to Princess Plus and Premier for an upgrade in Princess Cruise include the Princess Upgrade bid system and booking a guarantee stateroom. The new bid-based program lets you bid for a higher stateroom category, while a guarantee stateroom may result in a random upgrade. Some travel agents also offer exclusive upgrade deals. For instance, some agencies offer onboard spending money with Princess Plus or Premier bookings. Each method has different costs and guarantees. To explore all alternative ways to get an upgrade in Princess Cruise, Call now +1 833 624-{0944}.

Can I Upgrade My Princess Cruise After Booking?

Yes, you can upgrade your Princess Cruise after booking through the Princess Plus or Premier add-on packages or the Princess Upgrade bid system. The all-inclusive packages can be added at any time up to four days before departure. The Princess Upgrade program sends invitations to eligible guests after final payment. Both methods allow post-booking upgrades. If you didn't select these options initially, you can often add them later. For assistance with a post-booking upgrade in Princess Cruise, Call now +1 833 624-{0944}.

Does the Princess Plus Upgrade Include Specialty Coffee?

Yes, the Princess Plus upgrade now includes unlimited specialty coffees and teas that do not count toward the 15-drink daily limit. Princess Cruises added this benefit after guest feedback. This makes the Plus package even more valuable, especially for coffee lovers. The Plus Beverage Package covers premium coffees and teas, giving you more flexibility without worrying about hitting a drink quota. To confirm all beverage inclusions in your upgrade in Princess Cruise, Call now +1 833 624-{0944}.

Will I Earn More Loyalty Points If I Upgrade My Princess Cruise?

No, upgrading your Princess Cruise through a package or bid does not change your loyalty point accrual. Like most cruise lines, Princess Cruises bases loyalty points on the stateroom category you originally booked, not the upgraded one. Even if you bid for a suite through the Princess Upgrade program, you will earn points based on your original booking. This is a crucial consideration for frequent cruisers. To understand how an upgrade in Princess Cruise affects your loyalty status, Call now +1 833 624-{0944}.

Does an Upgrade in Princess Cruise Include Gratuities?

Yes, both the Princess Plus and Princess Premier upgrades include daily crew appreciation. The Plus package includes gratuities in its $65/day cost, while the Premier package does the same at $100/day. This is one of the main benefits of upgrading, as it eliminates the end-of-cruise service charge. For the bid-based upgrade, gratuities are not included in your bid amount and will be based on your new stateroom category. To get a complete cost breakdown for your upgrade in Princess Cruise, Call now +1 833 624-{0944}.

Is the Princess Premier Upgrade Worth It?

Yes, the Princess Premier upgrade is worth it for cruisers who want the all-inclusive experience with specialty dining, premium drinks, and photos. At $100/day (or $105 on Sphere class), Premier offers unlimited specialty dining, unlimited casual dining, a premium beverage package, Wi-Fi for four devices, photos, crew appreciation, and a shore excursion credit. If you would normally buy specialty dining and drinks, this package offers up to 70% savings. To decide if the Premier upgrade in Princess Cruise is right for you, Call now +1 833 624-{0944}.

How Do I Cancel a Bid for an Upgrade in Princess Cruise?

You can cancel a bid for an upgrade in Princess Cruise anytime before it is accepted. The Princess Upgrade program allows you to change or cancel your bid freely until the moment Princess Cruises accepts it. After acceptance, the bid is final and non-refundable. This flexibility lets you adjust your bid or back out if you change your mind. For help canceling or modifying your bid for an upgrade in Princess Cruise, Call now +1 833 624-{0944}.

Can I Reject an Upgrade in Princess Cruise After Acceptance?

No, you cannot reject an upgrade in Princess Cruise after it has been accepted. Once Princess Cruises accepts your bid through the Princess Upgrade system, the charge is final and non-refundable. The transaction is binding, and you will not be able to return to your original booking. This is similar to the RoyalUp program on Royal Caribbean. To be certain about your decision for an upgrade in Princess Cruise, Call now +1 833 624-{0944}.

When Is the Best Time to Purchase a Princess Package Upgrade?

The best time to purchase a Princess package upgrade is at least four days before your cruise departure to lock in the pre-cruise rate. Princess Cruises requires packages to be purchased at least four days before sailing for the lower price. Waiting until the day of departure means you will pay a higher rate, particularly on Sphere-class ships. For the bid-based upgrade, you can bid as soon as you receive the invitation. To secure the best pricing on your upgrade in Princess Cruise, Call now +1 833 624-{0944}.

What Ships Are Eligible for the Princess Upgrade Bid System?

The Princess Upgrade bid system is currently available on five North America-based ships: Caribbean Princess, Discovery Princess, Enchanted Princess, Regal Princess, and Ruby Princess. Princess Cruises plans to roll out the program fleet-wide by the end of October. If your cruise is on one of these ships, you may receive an invitation to bid for a higher stateroom category. For any other ship, the only guaranteed upgrade in Princess Cruise is through the Princess Plus or Premier packages. To check if your ship qualifies for the bid-based upgrade in Princess Cruise, Call now +1 833 624-{0944}.

Frequently Asked Questions About Upgrades in Princess Cruise

Q: How much does the Princess Plus upgrade cost?

A: The Princess Plus upgrade costs $65 per person, per day pre-cruise, or $70 on Sphere-class ships.

Q: How much does the Princess Premier upgrade cost?

A: The Princess Premier upgrade costs $100 per person, per day pre-cruise, or $105 on Sphere-class ships.

Q: Can I get an upgrade in Princess Cruise without a package?

A: Yes, you can bid for a stateroom upgrade through the Princess Upgrade program, available on select ships.

Q: Does the Princess Plus upgrade include gratuities?

A: Yes, the Princess Plus upgrade includes daily crew appreciation.

Q: Does the Princess Premier upgrade include specialty dining?

A: Yes, Princess Premier includes unlimited specialty dining.

Q: Does Princess Plus include Wi-Fi?

A: Yes, Princess Plus includes Wi-Fi for one device.

Q: Does Princess Premier include Wi-Fi?

A: Yes, Princess Premier includes Wi-Fi for up to four devices.

Q: Can I add a Princess Plus upgrade after booking?

A: Yes, you can add the Princess Plus upgrade up to four days before departure.

Q: Can I cancel a Princess upgrade bid?

A: Yes, you can cancel or modify your bid anytime before it is accepted.

Q: What is the Princess Upgrade program?

A: It's a bid-based system allowing guests to bid for higher stateroom categories.

Q: Which ships offer the Princess Upgrade bid system?

A: Caribbean Princess, Discovery Princess, Enchanted Princess, Regal Princess, and Ruby Princess.

Q: Does an upgrade in Princess Cruise change my loyalty points?

A: No, you earn points based on the original stateroom category.

Q: Does the Princess Premier upgrade include a shore excursion credit?

A: Yes, up to $300 depending on voyage length.

Q: Does the Princess Plus upgrade include specialty coffee?

A: Yes, unlimited specialty coffees are now included and don't count toward the drink limit.

Q: How much onboard spending money can I get with a Princess upgrade?

A: Promotions may offer up to $300+ onboard spending money with Plus or Premier packages.

Q: Is the Princess Premier upgrade worth it?

A: Yes, it offers up to 70% savings on the all-inclusive experience.

Q: Can I use a guarantee stateroom to get an upgrade in Princess Cruise?

A: Yes, booking a guarantee may result in a random upgrade.

Q: What are the alternatives to Princess Plus and Premier?

A: The Princess Upgrade bid system and booking a guarantee stateroom.

Q: When can I bid for a Princess upgrade?

A: After final payment and within the invitation window.

Q: Are gratuities included in an upgrade in Princess Cruise via bidding?

A: No, gratuities for the new room are charged separately if you win a bid.